Cherry Creek Education Association

We support teachers, we advocate for students and we believe in the promise of a quality public education.

Community

- Students deserve strong, nurturing relationships that meet their needs and foster equity.
- Teachers know good education is a craft, a science, and an art which inspires tomorrow's inventors, thinkers, and leaders.
- Communities want a wide-range of supporting professionals who benefit students through a variety of academic and social services.

Commitment

- Students contribute to the development of their thinking and learning and meet appropriately high expectations.
- Teachers better the teaching profession through planning well rounded curricula and influencing educational policies.
- Communities want small classes to reduce the achievement gap and allow for personalized learning that recognizes student needs, stronger communication and relationships between teacher and student and teacher and parent/guardian.
